A GUIDE, NOT A TIMETABLE

Your itinerary is designed as a guide rather than a fixed schedule. Timings may be adjusted in consultation with your guide, who may also suggest changes in response to wildlife movements, weather, road conditions or simply the best sightings of the day.

SECURING YOUR JOURNEY

Travel falls within peak season. Flight availability and accommodation remain subject to change until confirmed; scheduled flight fares may rise and preferred camps sell out. Confirming early secures the best available options and pricing.

Arrival in Nairobi

A late-evening arrival into Nairobi, met with privilege. At Jomo Kenyatta International Airport you are personally welcomed and fast-tracked through formalities with dedicated VIP assistance, then transferred by private vehicle to Hemingways Nairobi — an elegant boutique retreat in the leafy suburb of Karen, with views toward the Ngong Hills.

Settle into your suite and unwind, with dinner at leisure and two unhurried nights to begin your Kenyan journey in comfort and style.

ORPHAN ELEPHANTS · DAVID SHELDRIK WILDLIFE TRUST

A morning on the plains, then Kenya's most beloved conservation story. You set out at 07:30 for a private game drive in Nairobi National Park, then return for the single daily hour — from 11 am — when the orphaned elephants at the David Sheldrick Wildlife Trust come in for their midday milk feed and mud bath, the only window the public is permitted to share.

In the afternoon you visit the Giraffe Centre to meet the resident Rothschild giraffes, before returning to Hemingways Nairobi for an evening at leisure and fine dining.

HIPPOS · LAKE NAIVASHA

A freshwater jewel beneath the Rift Valley escarpments. After breakfast at Hemingways, your journey continues west into the dramatic Great Rift Valley, descending to the tranquil shores of Lake Naivasha — a scenic drive of three to four hours. Arrive for lunch, then an afternoon at leisure with a sunset walk and sundowner.

The next morning, an early boat safari glides across glass-like waters to Crescent Island, where a guided walking safari lets you move freely on foot among giraffe and zebra — exhilarating and serene, and best enjoyed before the midday heat.

THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE SAFARI

YOUR TENTED SUITE · MAASAI MARA

CHEETAH BROTHERS IN THE LONG GRASS

Africa's finest safari destination, and the soul of this journey.

Arriving from Naivasha, you check in to your luxury tented camp — canvas, wood and sweeping views blending into the wilderness — and settle in over a relaxed lunch, with time to rest or unwind by the pool before an evening game drive introduces the Mara's remarkable density of life.

Two full days of wildlife follow. On each, you may return to camp for lunch or — our warm recommendation — take a picnic lunch into the bush, staying out among the herds and prides rather than driving back through the middle of the day.

On your final morning, time permitting, an early game drive and unhurried bush breakfast precede your light-aircraft flight back to Nairobi.

GAME DRIVES MAY REVEAL

- Lion prides in golden light
- Elephant herds on the plains
- Cheetah scanning the horizon
- Leopard in riverine forest
- Great migratory herds (seasonal)
- The wider cast of the savannah
